Do you want targeted advertising for just £30 per month?

Of course you do, so keep reading...

MX24 is an online directory created for motocross fans BY motocross fans.

We are offering you the chance to advertise to around 1,500 people a month (and growing steadily) for just £30 per month.

With the majority of these 1,500 people actively looking to buy something! The majority of the people on our site are looking for motocross shops, or some variation on that theme. This means that you could be advertising to 1,000 people a month who WANT to buy something, and as you know, when people want to buy something they invariably will.

Your add will appear at the top of each and every page on MX24, meaning that no matter where people are on the site they will see your banner. MX24 is specifically designed to draw attention to the advertisers by keeping the rest of the site as low-key as possible.

All we asking for this exceptional opportunity is just £30 a month! That's right, not £30 per CPM, or any of the other techniques some companies use to get more money out of you, just £30 a month, no more no less, and as I said, these people are all actively looking to buy something.

For just £30 a month you will get a 160 x 80 banner that is shown site wide! As a further incentive, we will also give a page to yourself where you can place your address and phone number for those people who would rather contact you that way, you also get a link to your website, this provides you with even further exposure to the visitors.
